INTRODUCTION

Traffic on Montana's highways was measured and classified to a limited extent before the beginning of the Montana Highway Planning Survey in 1936. It has only been since the inception of the Planning Survey, however, that an attempt has been made to systematically sample traffic and compute average daily figures for each year on all of the more heavily traveled roads and highways in the State.

Figures shown in this report are derived from continuous counts made by photoelectric cell recorders at twenty locations, manual counts taken three times per year seasonally at 134 locations and 48 hour portable machine counts made seasonally at approximately 1200 locations.
